MED Week 2009 awards Managed Business Solutions

Colorado Springs, Colo., Aug. 17, 2009 Managed Business Solutions (MBS) was an honoree at the 27th Annual Dallas National Enterprise Center (DNEC) Minority Enterprise Development (MED) Week Conference. The DNEC is a forum to honor innovative leaders in minority businesses. More than 27 years ago, the Minority Business Development Agency (MBDA), which is part of the U.S. Department of Commerce, initiated MED Week to celebrate the and inspire minority entrepreneurial achievement of minority business.

This year's MED Week Conference, "Energizing the American Economy with Minority Business Enterprises" focused specifically on the opportunities available through the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act and spotlighted how minority businesses can play a historic role in rebuilding our Nation. MBS was awarded Regional Minority Business Supplier Distributor Firm of the Year by the U.S. Department of Commerce.

"MBS is honored to receive the Regional Minority Business Supplier Distributor Firm of the Year award during the DNEC MED Week conference, said CEO Richard Noe. We are committed to the success and viability of minority business enterprise and appreciate the leadership and guidance of the MBDA."

About Managed Business Solutions

Founded in 1993, MBS is a global service provider of high-quality IT solutions. The company's reputation for on-time and on-budget work has helped it maintain a better than 90 percent retention rate among its client base and resulted in continued double-digit growth over the years. Thrice named as one of Inc. Magazine's 500 fastest growing privately held companies, MBS leverages best industry practices and partners with its clients to cut costs and boost productivity.

The company recently sold 92 percent of ownership to Sealaska, an Alaskan-Native Corporation. This move qualifies MBS to expand into the federal and state government as an 8(a), Alaskan Native Owned Company, as well as being certified by the National Minority Supplier Diversity Council as a diverse supplier.

The company employs nearly 200 technical professionals and is divided into three major operating units; Managed Services, Consulting & Integration Services and Staffing Services. MBS has a powerful 15 year track record of providing these services in North America, Latin America, Africa, Asia Pacific and Europe. MBS's web site can be accessed at www.mbshome.com.
